Chris Tsangarides – Grammy Nominated Writer / Producer / Engineer / Mixer

Chris took his first job at the legendary Morgan Studios in 1975, which later became Battery Studios. He produced his first record at the tender age of 21 after a rapid ascent through the Studio honour system. His discography reads like a veritable who's who of alternative rock taking in credits for Thin Lizzy, Black Sabbath, Judas Priest, and Depeche Mode

Now based in a residential studio retreat on the South Coast of England and seemingly never-ending queue of artists are lined-up to work with Chris. Recently, he has completed records with Biomechanical, Matt Mays & El Torpedo and Crowning Glory. Chris is also well known for his appearance in the movie 'Anvil: The Story of Anvil' which just won an Emmy in the U.S. and has become a tour bus favourite for all bands.

All following credits are for combinations of Writing, Producing, Engineering & Mixing as well as various co-writes and playing credits.
